Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives welcome with pleasure the opportunity to recognize a remarkable Missouri citizen whose efforts and accomplishments have made her a source of inspiration to all those around her; and

Whereas, Eula Moore Schmidt, a resident of French Village, Missouri, has distinguished herself as a longtime historian in the French Village community; and

Whereas, Eula Schmidt enjoys conducting family genealogy and is most proud of her own heritage in America, which she can trace back to 1634; and

Whereas, to summerize Eula Schmidt's philosophy is to quote Eleanor Roosevelt who said, "If you stop learning, you stop living in any vital and meaningful sense"; and

Whereas, a retired teacher, Eula Schmidt supported her profession as a member of Alpha Sigma Lambda and the Missouri State Teachers Association; and

Whereas, Eula Schmidt is a graduate of Washington University who is attending Southeast Missouri State University and Mineral Area College; and

Whereas, Eula Schmidt has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband, Leon J. Schmidt; and three children, Bob Schmidt, Bill Schmidt, and Sharon Scherer:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to congratulate Eula Schmidt for her role as a local historian and to wish her only the best in all future endeavors; and
